Description

One of the finest pair of napkin rings I have had for some time, clearly untouched for most of their 110 years. The beautiful shaped pair are beautifully decorated with embossed and engraved floral and foliate motifs with two vacant cartouches. Each has a clear hallmark for Sheffield 1904 together with the makers initials for the top-notch silversmith, Walker & Hall. They sit in their original silk and velvet presentation box, the silk on the inside of the lid is gold printed for "Walker & Hall / Sheffield", so the original case. Immaculate condition, each measuring 1 3/4" in diameter x 1" and weighing a combined 1.83 Troy Ounces / 56.7 Grams. The box measures 5 5/8" x 3" x 2 3/4".
