Description

Superb Victorian Wall Mirror - Barrel Glove Valet Box & Rail - c1870 A gorgeous Victorian English wall mirror in mahogany which benefits from a fabulous barrel front valet drawer and lower rail. This rare mirror is presented in excellent order throughout and supplied complete with fixing brackets for easy mounting. A good mirror plate under a sloping pediment with integral finial resides over a useful storage space. The curved frame supports a further unusual feature in the form of a lower rail. An exceptional example this piece will be perfect at an entrance hall location offering the chance to store keys, phones, sticks umbrellas and scarves, or perhaps in a bathroom or cloakroom providing the opportunity for hand-towel hanging. Certainly a piece in this condition and of this quality gives great scope. Overall a wonderfully proportioned and attractive mirror in excellent antique order which will be wonderful in any home or collection. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
