Description

Compact Mahogany Dressing Mirror - Victorian - c1850 A lovely example of an English Victorian mahogany dressing mirror of useful compact proportions. This well kept piece is in great order throughout and benefits from original fittings. Pleasingly curved risers support the swing mirror which has a good mirror plate. The rectangle shaped mahogany frame sits over the fine flame veneer stepped front plinth body which rides upon superb small bun feet. Overall a nicely proportioned and attractive mirror in very good antique order which will make a fine addition to any location.
