Description

Victorian Book Rack - Great Condition - c1900 A very attractive late Victorian solid mahogany open bookcase in the form of a library rack presented in superb condition. Offering the opportunity to store a generous amount of titles this free-standing piece has a pair of shelves over a lower magazine rack. It is both sturdy and stylish and perfect for either locating against a wall or to sit by the side of an armchair. The piece is pleasingly crafted and in lovely order. It benefits from carved forms to the ends and at the lower tier. Overall a very desirable late Victorian item of furniture in fine order. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
