Description

Stunning pair of antique Victorian burr walnut bedside chests in good condition. There is a beautiful pattern of burr walnut figuring on the tops, drawer fronts, curved corners & even on the base plinths. One of the drawers is a double & all the drawers look like they have the original handles. This pair of chests have a lovely original mellow colour & are full of character, with natural distressing in the wood. Unlike most of these pairs in the market, they look completely original & not made up from something else. Although when we picked them up, they were half painted & were much deeper. We just had them polished & cut back a bit in depth, because they looked too cumbersome. These are unique & can't be repeated. Please enlarge all the images to appreciate these chests. Also, there is a makers name stamped into the top of one of the drawers (see image). Width - 16.5", 42 cm Depth - 16.5", 42 cm Height - 32", 81 cm
