Description

Antique Victorian mahogany chest of drawers in lovely original condition, with a lovely original warm colour. This is definitely one of the better quality versions of this type of chest. It has a solid mahogany top, round corners, mahogany bun handles, original locks on all the drawers & very deep graduated drawers. The bottom drawer actually comes out joined to the plinth, so there is no wasted storage space. There are also flat bun feet at the base. The drawer bottoms are solid mahogany too & the sides are joined with fine dovetails. This chest dates from around the 1860-80 period, so there are naturally various old marks, indentations, etc, so don't expect it to look new, but it is in good condition & structurally sound, with drawers that work. Width - 45", 114 cm Depth - 21", 53 cm Height - 44", 112 cm
