Description

Antique Edwardian Oak Tambor Roll Top Desk and dating from around 1900. Constructed from quality oak it has a tambor front in very good condition and with original key and brass escutcheon and opens to reveal an interior of light oak with a selection of pigeon holes and letter racks with one long drawer to each side above a secret small frieze drawer and with open space below. To the top of each pedestal there is a book slide and central frieze drawer. The left pedestal has four graduating drawers all of which are oak lined with original oak handles and the right hand pedestal has a two drawers and a double file drawer with false double drawer front (making for the appearance of two drawers). It is panelled within the knee hole and has panelled sides and stands on a plinth base. Separates for ease of transporting. Measures: 45" high x knee height 26" x 30" desk height x 26" deep x 48" wide A lovely desk in very good condition with a lovely deep colour and patination to the quality oak and oozing all the charm and character of the period. Please note that there is a very old ink stain on the right of the writing surface although this does not detract from the desk. £50...
