Description

A rare pair of Victorian silver dessert forks in the sought after Kings pattern. More unusual is the fact that these quality examples were assayed at the English Provincial Office of Exeter. They have an unusual boar's head armorial to the top front. With so much flatware melted down in the last two years, a pair of dessert forks of this quality is a very pleasing find. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- William Rawlings Sobey. Length :- 17.5 cms.
