Description

Oak Waterfall Book Case - Dome Top - c1910 A very attractive English Edwardian oak open bookcase in the waterfall form presented in superb condition. Offering the opportunity to store a generous amount of titles this free-standing piece has a trio of deeper lower shelves with a quartet of upper shelves below a desirable dome top. It is both sturdy and stylish and perfect for either book storage or display purposes. The piece is pleasingly crafted and in lovely order. It benefits from moulded edge detail to the shelves and a pleasing tone to the oak. Overall a very pleasing and practical item of furniture in fine order. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
