Description

A very attractive and intricately carved antique Victorian balloon back chair in a faded Rosewood. It has a shaped top rail and a carved and pierced bottom back rail and stands on carved cabriole legs. Of a very high quality this chair is very unusual in that it has faded to such an attractive light colour even though it is made of rosewood. It has been newly recovered in a two tone cream brocade fabric. A stunning antique chair, very decorative and typical of the Victorian Rococo Revival style. Construction/Wood: Rosewood - which has faded to a light honey colour. Condition Report: Very solid. Newly recovered. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 17" Depth: 16" Height to seat: 18" Overall Height: 34" Delivery: £29.95 to Mainland England 10-14 Days via Furniture Courier Other areas of UK please ask for a quote.
