SoldItem Reference: SA234152*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A magnificent antique Edwardian sewing table made of mahogany and standing on 4 slender square tapered legs with up swept stretchers meeting in a flat finial. This elegant and useful table has a hexagonal top that lifts to reveal a useful storage space. Originally a sewing table but would also work really well as a lamp table or telephone table. With original interior lining. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good solid condition, it has a lock but no key. The top has some slight scratches to it. Overall a lovely warm patina to the mahogany. There is some rust to interior hinge screws. Dimensions: Top: 17.5" by 15" Height: 28.5" Delivery: £29.95 to Mainland England 14-21 Days via Furniture Courier Other areas of UK please contact us for a quote
