Description

English Georgian Writing Bureau - Superior Fitted Interior - c1780 Presented in good antique condition - a quality bureau with pleasing proportion and a stunning fitted interior. Rising from classic bracket feet the bureau offers four generously sized full width drawers complete with brass back-plate handles and lock escutcheon fittings. The fall flap opens to provide a useful writing surface. The desirable later fitted interior displays wonderfully with a scalloped detail and offers a useful range of drawers and cubbies. Additionally there are twin false book slide outs as a further sign of the quality. It is solidly crafted throughout, has strong dovetails, good craftsmanship and will make a fine addition to any home. A perfect example of practicality and good design with traditional craftsmanship delivering a piece which will still be desirable in another two centuries time. A classic English antique bureau with huge charm, history and warmth. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
