Description

A charming and elegant early Victorian antique Victorian prie dieu chair in rosewood with barleytwist side supports. This delightful and extremely decorative antique chair features ornately carved legs terminating in brass castors stamped 'I.W.LEWTY'S PATENT' below a crown. The frame of the chair is in good condition but the upholstery which is an embroidered silk shows signs of wear to the seat with some rips and tears. The seat is lumpy - so this is more of a decorative item in its current upholstery. Overall an unusual, highly decorative and high quality statement piece. Construction: Rosewood. Condition Report: The frame of the chair is in good condition with a few minor marks commensurate with age. The upholstery is worn, there are some rips to the fabric on the seat and there are marks and discolouration. Would benefit reupholstery but still an attractive and decorative piece. Dimensions: Width: 17.5" Depth: 20.5" Height to Seat: 13" Overall Height: 36" Delivery: £39.95 to mainland England via Furniture Courier Other areas of UK please ask for a quote.
