Description

Victorian Pine Dresser Base - Classic Three Drawer Design - c1900 This original late Victorian pine display dresser base with later upper is a very pleasing design offering great practicality and huge style. With a desirable 'triple drawer over double door' lower cabinet below a quality display top benefiting from a quintet of feature drawers. The quality lower cabinet, with field panel sides, opens to reveal a full width central shelf. Full depth strongly dovetailed drawers provide superb storage capacity. Offering warmth of tone to the pine the piece gives fine opportunity as a kitchen display or dining room cabinet. Classically proportioned this dresser will suit any decorative style. The construction of the piece is robust and solid and it is presented in very good antique condition. The dresser top detaches so it will fit into homes with small doors. Delivered cleaned, waxed and ready for the home.
