Description

English Georgian Writing Bureau - Oak - c1754 Presented in good antique condition - a quality English oak bureau with pleasing carved central dated cartouche. Rising from a partially relieved continuous plinth the bureau offers three generously sized full width drawers complete with brass swan-neck batwing backplate handles, below a false upper pair who blank off the desirable internal well. The fall flap opens to provide an original writing surface and fitted interior. A trio of waterfall drawers flank the central cubbies. In front of the mid section lies a slide back lid which moves rearwards to reveal the under desk storage area. It is solidly crafted throughout, has strong joints, wonderful provincial craftsmanship and will make a fine addition to any home. A perfect example of practicality and classic design with traditional English craftsmanship delivering a piece which will still be desirable in another two centuries time. A classic quality English antique bureau with huge charm, history and warmth. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. We ship worldwide.
