His early successes included winning the Grand Prix in Ostend and coming second in the Nations Cup competitions at Ostend, Rotterdam and Geneva, both in 1971. In the following year, he came second in the Nations Cup in Rome, before achieving a first in London. He then went on to win back-to-back Nations Cups in 1977 and 1978. Incredibly, Penwood Forge Mill also won the European Championships, the King George V Gold Cup and the Horse and Hounds Cup wi...
