A SMALL GEORGE III MARQUETRY INLAID CARD TABLE

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA238756*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A George III marquetry inlaid demi-lune SATINWOOD CARD TABLE of compact size, in "country house" condition. The well figured satinwood top is marquetry inlaid with leaves and scrolls within rosewood crossbanding and opens to reveal the blind-tooled baize interior. The frieze is similarly inlaid with scrolls and leaves, as are the tapering legs (two are hinged at the rear) which terminate in block feet. 31ins (78cms) wide. **
Purchased privately, this good table has not been restored. It is in excellent condition but might benefit from a clean and revival to the polish which can be arranged if required.
