Antique Octagonal Mahogany Leather Top Campaign Style Drum Table

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA239160*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

This antique mahogany campaign style drum table is really good quality & has loads of character. It has the original tooled leather top, which has seen better days, but I thought we should try to retain it & do a few repairs on it, because I liked the tooling pattern & the original colour. Having said all that, we could get it re-leathered & hand coloured for about £100 in any colour you like. There is a brass rim all around the top, brass corner edges further down, inset brass military handles on all the drawer, brass inlay on the legs & original brass casters too. There are 4 real drawers & 4 dummy drawers. It's antique Regency style, probably dating from around the 1910-20's period & is structurally sound. Width - 33.5", 85 cm Depth - 36", 92 cm Height - 29.5", 75 cm
