Description

Quality Glazed Display Cabinet - Mirror Back - c1910 This Edwardian period English glazed display cabinet is a superb example offering great display opportunity. Presented in very good condition and benefiting from a classic mirror back interior to really highlight the contents. Rising from tapered legs with brass feet caps leading to twin glazed doors which, in common with the side panels, feature top quality glazing with a splendid wide bevel to the edge. The doors show a lower panel with inlaid burr walnut centre panel veneer and perimeter marquetry - these open to reveal a lovely interior offering a trio of removable glass shelves. With wonderful proportion and quality craftsmanship this cabinet will make a fine drawing room, office, hallway, reception, library or study piece. Delivered cleaned waxed and ready for the home.
