Description

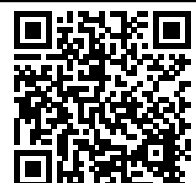

Stunning Walnut Cabinet - Two Tier Marble Top - c1900 An exceptional and interesting late Victorian walnut cabinet with tiered marble top presented in very good antique condition. The piece is wonderfully sized and offers superb build quality. With solid walnut construction, quality dove tailed drawers, and pleasing styling this a visually rewarding item of furniture and very versatile. Twin drawers, offering substantial utensils storage, sit over a pair of field panel lower cabinet doors each with solid original handles. The lower cabinet opens to reveal a central shelf and offers deep storage capacity. A stepped black marble upper provides a perfect work surface with an upper tier for display. The piece lends itself perfectly to location in a cooks kitchen and being set up as a bakers station really makes the most of the cabinet both aesthetically and practically. Having a main surface with a 29" working height makes for easy dough kneading! The piece is substantially constructed and sturdy. Overall a very desirable item of antique furniture in fine order which will look perfect as a free standing feature piece. Beautiful as well as being a functional and a furn...
