

SA239604

Mintons Armorial Porcelain Plates with the Motto 'Nos Aspera Juvant' & the arms of Lowis of Merchiston

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA239604*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

Three Minton's Porcelain Plates circa 1920, comprising a dinner plate, soup plate and a side plate, each thickly gilded to the centre with an armorial and the motto "Nos Aspera Juvant" (which translates as difficulties delight us) within cobalt blue and foliate enriched gilt borders. The reverse with printed Minton's mark and Thos. Goode retailers mark. The arms and motto are those of the Napier family, Lowis of Merchiston Castle/Tower in Edinburgh, Scotland. All in excellent condition.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478

