Description

Standing approximately 12.25 inches (31 cm) high, this PAIR OF ANTIQUE STAFFORDSHIRE DOGS date from circa 1860. They have gilt collars, padlocks and chains and very bushy tails. Their condition is good with no restoration. Both dogs have crazing to the glaze. The gilt on the left side dog is worn and there is some paint flaking to the muzzle. The right side dog is slightly darker in colour having been left in the kiln a little longer. He has a small chip to the glaze on the footrim beneath the tail. A charming PAIR OF STAFFORDSHIRE DOGS.
