Description

A beautiful example of a late Victorian letter rack or stationery holder made from solid Mahogany, perfect for stationery or incoming mail. The front is beautifully decorated with a marquetry fan-shaped inlay and the panel is framed with a fine Boxwood stringing; very popular around this period and highly sought-after today. In excellent condition making a nice addition to the smartest of desk-tops. The footprint of the caddy measures 10" wide x 3 3/4" deep and stands 6 1/2" tall at rear.
