Description

A spectacular 8½ foot long mid 19th.c. farmhouse kitchen dresser base. Two drawers above a two door cupboard, flanked on each side by banks of three long drawers. In pine with a beautiful thick sycamore wood top scrubbed smooth and pale through years of use. A stunning and unique item with great rustic character (the top has a warp front to back). In remarkable original and unrestored condition, retaining it's original paint finish and turned knobs. The unusual eight panel back means it could also be used in the middle of a room as a divider or island dresser. Dimensions: width 102", depth 23", height 32".
