Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

An extremely rare example of a Victorian finger bowl in unusual and sought after amber. This attractive piece has a polished pontil to the base. Victorian finger bowls come in a range of available colours, amber being the least often found and therefore rather sought after by collectors. Condition :- Excellent, with no chips or cracks. There is the expected wear to the base and some light surface scratches, commensurate with age and use. There is a slight ripple in the glass on the side, part of the blowing process and not damage. (shown in photo 6). Origin :- English. Diameter :- 11.5 cms. Height :- 8.5 cms.
