Description

A very attractive antique Edwardian single wardrobe with mirrored door of tall and slim proportions. It has carved side panels along with reeding and a shaped top cornice. It has a large drawer to the bottom and the interior has been fitted with 2 metal hanging rails running front to back. It has drop handles to the drawers and the door and comes with a working lock and key. It splits into three sections for transport (cornice, middle section and drawers) and is of a nice weight and size for an antique wardrobe. Construction/Wood: Appears to be Walnut Condition Report: In good condition with some small scuffs and marks commensurate with age. Working lock and key. Mirror has some age and foxing - but is the original mirror so gives it a nice original antique appearance.
