Description

This is a superb example of a French rosewood clock. The rosewood case has wonderful inlay and a rich colour and patina, this is complimented by the white dial which is in superb condition with a contrasting brass door. The case itself is very much of the Victorian era with the Gothic shape. It strikes on the hour and half hours on a coiled gong. The movement has just been serviced so you can be assured that this clock is in tip top condition and will give trouble free service for many years to come. It is keeping accurate time. Dimensions of clock: Height 13.5" Width is 10", Depth 8". Delivery for this item to mainland England and Wales is free.
