Description

Late C19th George I style walnut card table. Fantastic copy of an important early C18th fold-over gaming table. Raised on carved cabriole legs with shell-carved knees and claw and ball feet, carved conch-shell decoration to the frieze. The veneered and banded top with 'fumed' polish finish and distressing to imitate age and wear. Double-gate action to rear supports. Vibrantly coloured needle-work interior in early C18th style in perfect condition, depicting playing cards, gambling chips etc. The shaped fold-over top with 'guinea counter' scoop corners or candle-wells. W 33" D 17" H 30". England c 1890.
