Description

A superb quality twin pedestal Victorian 19th century mahogany desk. This three part writing library table computer desk is far better than your average model; having a more rare and desirable serpentine swept shaped front and good quality flame veneers to both the drawer fronts the rear pedestals and the cross banding to the top. All the drawers are oak lined and retain the original brass handles. The whole is raised on the more desirable ogee bracket feet. The sage leather skiver complements the rich colour of the mahogany. This piece of furniture comes in three parts to allow easy transportation and movement around the house. This piece of furniture has been restored to exacting standards by qualified professional restorers and is ready to place in your home. Circa 1895. Excellent condition. Measures 51" w x 30"d x 31.5"h. Knee hole measures 22" w x 25"h.
