Description

A wonderful Victorian tea caddy in the Queen Anne Style made from solid sterling silver with a hallmark for London 1894. As well as the pull off cap, it has a slide top, allowing the cannister to be easily re-filled with tea. Quite wonderful to come in it's original presentation box, making this a really special find. The box also has the initials of the highly collectible and top-notch silversmith, George Unite. The base of the caddy measures 3 1/4" x 2 1/4" and stands 4 1/4" tall to top of cap finial. 154.7 Grams / 4.97 Troy Ounces.
