SoldItem Reference: SA246530*Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

Edwardian, roll-top oak desk with tubular opening. The desk has its own working key which operates a secret locking mechanism for the roller top and side draws. The roll-top opens to reveal seven pigeon holes of varying sizes and a full width pull out writing slide that increases the size of the working surface. The desk has eight draws, four to the left, one central draw and three to the right, the bottom one being of double depth. The desk splits into three sections, making transportation and positioning that much easier. Height: 38½"/97cm Width: 45"/114cm Depth: 27"/68.5cm Depth with desk top pulled out: 34.25"/87cm
