Description

This is an original 1910-1940's glass flowered ceiling light with a brass central fitting to the ceiling with a pair of cherubs playing trumpets on either side. The coloured glass flowers are all original, and have been reset in replacement wire mesh with four light bulbs fitted above the flowers. The brass frame has a decorative scroll and leaf design around the edge. The light measures approximately 43cm in width and 51cm in height, and it has been rewired to uk specifications. The light can be viewed and collected from the Surrey area, or we can arrange for courier delivery to the UK mainland. Quotes for delivery can be given, including quotes for overseas delivery.
