Description

Antique Mahogany Wardrobe Compactum by Shapland & Petter of Barnstaple Devon, and with original s & P stamps to the locks. A superb quality mahogany wardrobe dating from around 1890 and with a cornice top with dental moulding above a deep frieze and to one side is a full length bevelled edge mirror set within a mahogany surround with pediment to the top and with original brass handle and to the base is a small panelled shoe cupboard (most unusual feature. To the other side is a stunning pair of doors with interlocking panels above a panel of half turned spindles and with internal shelf. Below this is an open space with carved spindle supports joined by a shaped frieze and above three long graduating drawers all of which are mahogany lined with original brass handles. It stands on a plinth base and separates for ease of transporting. The wardrobe has its original lining to both the hanging area and cupboard. Measures: 72" high x 22" deep x internal depth 19" x 64" wide Shapland and Petter are synonymous with The Arts & Crafts Movement and designed for Liberty's & Co among others and they were renowned for excellent design and workmanship.
