Description

Quality English Chair - Victorian Chippendale Revival - c1890 This hugely attractive late Victorian period English side chair offers classic Chippendale style and is presented in superb antique condition. It will serve wonderfully as a bedroom chair, hallway feature, dining chair or morning room piece. A well proportioned and classically styled chair with seat upholstered in a top quality damask textile. The seat pad is the 'drop-in' style and therefore recovering would be straightforward should your room design demand so. The chair is a top quality example with a strong mahogany frame presenting a pleasingly intricate and ornate back-splat with hand carved and wonderfully decorated top rail leading to rather fabulous ears. Riding upon desirable cabriole front legs with a fully grasping long talon claw and ball foot and stunning carved knee. To the rear the chair terminates with a semi-pad squared foot. At the front a serpentine rail with moulded edge creates a pleasing aesthetic. The whole chair benefits from a lightness of tone to the mahogany. The supportive seat offers a rewarding seating experience with the useful seat height of 46cm (18.1") and a very gener...
