SoldItem Reference: SA247472*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A lovely example of an egg cruet serving six people. The lovely decorative stand is pierced or reticulated with repousse decoration. The six fluted egg cups are gilded on the interior and the stand holds the original six egg spoons with a matching mark to the stand. The mark is for John Henry Potter of Sheffield dating to the late Victorian era, around 1890. The stand measures 10 1/2" x 7 3/4" and stands 9" tall.
