Description

A gorgeous example of Victorian tea-table ware. This is a rare boxed pair of silver sardine servers.. It comprises a shaped fork, with the usual flared tines and foliar engraved decoration. The slice is beautifully pierced and engraved and features a fish engraved with lovely detail. Both pieces are in the sought after Onslow pattern and presented in their original box, retailed by Mappin & Webb. A wonderful collector's piece, both decorative and practical. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. The box is in good condition and closes well, although it does have some age related wear. Hallmarks :- Clear and matching. Maker :- Probably James Moir. Length :- 16 cms. (slice). 12.5 cms. (fork).
