SoldItem Reference: SA249675*Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

A most impressive Victorian chest of drawers of excellent quality. C1870. This superb very large chest is made of Mahogany in a wonderful typical "Scottish" design. With two delightful cushion moulded drawers to the top, with the lower being very deep, which has three sections and would have originally been a "hat drawer". Below are four long graduating drawers. With charming decorative carved supports to each side. With superior quality flame Mahogany which is exceptional. The colour of the wood is truly out-standing, rich and warm with a beautiful striking grain. Each drawer has the original brass escutcheons and locks, with elegant turned bun handles, with Mother-Of-Pearl to each centre. Each drawer is oak-lined, showing the quality of the chest. All drawers are very sturdy and open smoothly. Standing on large flattened bun-feet. A wonderful very impressive and imposing statement piece of furniture. In good original condition, with general expected signs of age and use. Some minor knocks and bumps. A very small historical repair to a veneer, very tiny. All signs of use, commensurate with age. The chest separates into two pieces, the top lifts of th...
