Description

Good quality Edwardian mahogany triple wardrobe c.1905. Lots of useful hanging space behind the centre and right hand doors, whilst the left hand side is fitted with shelves and slides (which could be easily removed to make room for more hanging). Good shaped cornice above an inlaid and crossbanded centre panel, flanked on both sides with original shaped and bevelled mirrors. Solid mahogany sides and drawer linings. In very good, unrestored condition retaining the original handles and fittings. Splits into two pieces plus cornice and plinth for ease of delivery. Dimensions: width 78", depth 22", height 82".
