Description

Geo.II silver salver/card tray; shaped shell border resting on three hoof feet. There is a crest to the centre, and one or two ancient repairs to the underside (see photograph,) which are undetectable from the topside, but mentioned for the sake of accuracy. This is of course reflected in the price. A real bargain for a nice servicable piece of early silver. London. 1759. John Schuppe. Diameter 17cm.
