

SA251520

Marine Chronometer

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA251520*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A fine quality two day marine chronometer by Victor Kullberg retailed by TH Knoblich of Hamburg - numbered 2350 and dates to 1900. The superb spotted plate fusee movement with Earnshaws detent escapement, with compensation balance and blued steel helical spring. The silvered and engraved brass dial, signed to the centre, with subsidiary state of wind and seconds zones. Original gold minute and hour hands, with the original blued steel hands for seconds and wind dials. The brass bowl set in brass gimbal, mounted in the fine quality original mahogany case, with double hinged lid, with original lock. Signed ivory retailers plaque TH Knoblich 2350 to the front middle tier. Brass Liverpool flush handles to the sides. Original ratcheted brass tipsy winding key. This chronometer has been professionally serviced, cleaned and rated by us and is in fantastic showroom condition. This fine chronometer was made by the eminent chronometer making company of Victor Kullberg, Liverpool Road, London. The chronometer was made for retail by TH Knoblich who's chronometer were supplied by Victor Kullberg. All parts are numbered 6963 for Kullbergs production numbers/records, which ...

Seller Details

FJ & RD Story Antique Clocks

The Old Vicarage Highthorn Road Kilnhurst South Yorkshire S64 5TX
United Kingdom

Tel: 07899 751 446 or 01709 589 736

International Tel: +44 7899 751 446 or +44 1709 589736