Price

SoldItem Reference: SA251761*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

A small Victorian silver carriage clock. A finely engraved case with the silver makers stamp 'C.B', Charles Boyton of London. The circular enamel dial marked 'Kendal & Dent' of London as retailers. An 8-day duration timepiece mechanism with the original lever escapement. Hallmarked London 1854. The majority of small silver carriage clocks are from the early 1900's so this is a rarer, earlier example. Height 2 3/4 " / 7 cms
