Price

SoldItem Reference: SA251998*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

18th century George III mahogany and ebony tea caddy. Sides and top veneered with nicely grained mahogany on oak carcass. The base mould and the quarter round mould to all the corners are solid ebony. Original rococco brass handle and escutcheon. Original ebony topped oak divisions inside. It has never had feet. Condition is pretty good for age but there is no lock plus there has been a couple of old repairs to the inside of the lid where the hinges are. No repairs to the outside of the box. Nice original patina with waxed finish. SIZE; 9 1/2" by 5" by 5 1/2" high
