Description

A charming and rare Mother-of-Pearl TEA CADDY, profusely mounted with hallmarked silver. Veneered throughout with Mother-of-Pearl 'diamonds', the lid is mounted with a pierced and engraved border with a similar (vacant) oval cartouche in the centre. To either side are hallmarked cast silver handles, whilst the escutcheon and four bun feet are all also of hallmarked silver. The lid opens to reveal the matching inner lid, and the original silver foil lining is still intact. A delightful tea caddy. All silver hallmarked for Chester 1895.
