Description

Late C19th Chinese ivory and box-wood inlaid padouk table. Finely inlaid shaped table top depicting a centre panel of Chinese figures engaged in crop cultivation and water-carrying in a landscape with trees and a pavilion. The outer borders inlaid with flowers, horses, figures and trailing foliage. No losses to inlay, but has a shrinkage crack to centre panel. The frieze edge of the top is also finely inlaid with relief carved figures/acrobats, trees, pavilions and landscape motifs in alternating box-wood and ivory. Raised on a triform dragon carved and pierced base onto scroll feet. Great quality inlay and a useful and exotic side/lamp table. H 27" Dia 22". China c.1880

Internal Ref: MLF 1311
