Description

Oak Davenport Desk - English Victorian - c1870 A very well presented and solidly constructed English oak Davenport writing desk c1870. An attractive tooled and embossed skiver to the lift flap offers a pleasing writing surface. The lid lifts to reveal a fitted interior. The upper provides a stationary storage section and is excellently presented. The header rail is classically styled with serpentine shape and moulded scroll form. Rising from original castors the Davenport flows through fluted columns flanking a superior field panel front with carved central cartouche. A quartet of side drawers provide further useful storage. These oak lined drawers benefit from strong dovetailing and original brass handle fittings. Overall a very desirable example in good order. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
