Description

This RARE STAFFORDSHIRE CRICKETING SPILL VASE shows the WICKET KEEPER poised behind THE STUMPS, wearing his TOP HAT and with his COBALT BLUE jacket hanging from the branch of the tree behind. Standing approximately 6.5 inches (16.5 cm) high, the CRICKETER forms part of the spill vase rather than being moulded separately. This FIGURE is illustrated in A & N HARDING'S VICTORIAN STAFFORDSHIRE FIGURES Vol 3 Page 295. The top of the SPILL VASE has been broken and lovingly and painstakingly reglued. It has gone back well with hardly any of the original china missing (please see photographs). There is a chip to the bocage on the underside of one of the branches. A RARE ANTIQUE STAFFORDSHIRE FIGURE.
