Description

Over 5 feet in length and sitting a good 3 people, this ANTIQUE JACOBEOAN STYLE CARVED WALNUT WINDOW SEAT dates from circa 1920. The SEAT has six barley-twist legs and cross stretchers carved with ACANTHUS LEAVES and CROWNS. It has a caned top and a drop-in upholstered seat. Dimensions: Height to top of upholstery: 20 inches (51 cm) Width: 61 inches (1.55m) Depth: 16 inches (40.5 cm) We have not re-upholstered the seat but it is firm and usable. If you would like it re-upholstered we would be happy to discuss it with you. There are no breaks or repairs and the wood has a good patination.
