Description

Here is a superb French Provincial Buffet. C1790. This delightful Buffet is made of solid Elm and has the most wonderful character. The colour, patina and richness to the wood is immense, which is only ever obtained by furniture of this great age, taking many many years to achieve such lovely warmth and character. The Buffet top has rounded front corners, having to frieze drawers below. The cupboard doors really are a delight, with beautifully carved and shaped panels. The doors open to reveal a single shelved interior, giving ample storage. With ornate metal escutcheons, inside bolt lock to the left door, and original lock to the right. No key. The base has a pretty shaped apron with a beautiful shell and foliate carved motif to the centre. Standing on elegant escargot cabriole supports, which are so beautifully and crisply carved. Bees-waxed and polished. "An absolutely wonderful piece. Stunning in the flesh! If you are able view this wonderful sideboard please do not hesitate to contact us to arrange an appointment. If you love real French country furniture then this will not disappoint! Very tactile and beautiful." The overall condition is very good, ...
