Description

Two 19th.c. black framed mirrors of remarkably similar design. The smaller of the two has small porcelain bun feet suggesting it once sat above a fireplace. The larger measures an impressive 76" along its longest sides. Both could be hung either portrait or landscape aspect. The surface of both frames has some obvious distress but they are both structurally sound with original glass and backboards. Dimensions: 76" x 31" & 39" x 25". Priced individually. £175 & £95
