Description

Quality Oak Triple Decanter Tantalus - Superb Condition - c1880 A gorgeous Victorian English Triple Decanter Tantalus presented in excellent condition. This wonderful example has been diligently cared for and delivers top quality. A trio of original cut-glass decanters, complete with stoppers, are housed within a golden oak case. The decanters sit into lined cubbies and enjoy a mirror back for additional display glamour. An original lock and key operate to secure the main compartment - this opens at which point the decanters can be removed. The butterfly doors fold back to reveal a useful storage area complete with a pair of tasting goblets. A pop-out lower drawer is activated by a hidden button and this opens to present a cribbage board and storage for playing cards. Overall a top quality and attractive original tantalus which will be wonderful in any home or collection. Very rare in this style and quality and offering the opportunity to be a perfect gift. Carefully delivered ready for the home.
